Passenger Deceased as a Result of a Motor Vehicle Accident

Early this morning at approximately 12:01 AM, Boone County Communications received a 911 call for a vehicle into the ditch on Interstate 865 west bound at approximately the 4.2 mile marker. The caller stated the vehicle had driven off the roadway, into the median, and then flipped into a nearby creek.

When law enforcement arrived on scene, they located the reported vehicle upside down in the creek. The front seat passenger, Terry Ingle (82 Years Old) of New Castle, IN was pronounced deceased on scene. The driver April Smith (46 Years Old) of New Castle, IN and a second passenger Floyd Ingle (81 Years Old) of New Castle, IN, were taken to a nearby medical facility in serious but stable condition.

The Boone County Sheriff's Office FACT Team is investigating this incident. Appropriate updates will be provided as new information becomes available. We ask that you please keep the families of those involved in your thoughts and prayers.
