Job Description:

Role and Responsibilities

As a 911 Emergency Communications Officer, under general supervision, you will be responsible for receiving, recording, and dispatching 911 calls to the appropriate emergency public safety personnel. Duties are performed in an Emergency Dispatch Center environment which is fast-paced, and very often stressful. Emergency Communications Officers must provide excellent customer service to the public while exercising considerable tact and firmness in obtaining information from distressed persons. Some of the responsibilities are below but the list is not limited to only these functions.

- Answer 911 emergency and non-emergency calls from the public utilizing a variety of communications devices such as telephone, radio, and computer.
- Assist inbound calls, from our internal customers, with citizen information, BMV records, jail information, background reports and other related information efficiently and expeditiously.
- Obtain pertinent information from incoming calls in a prompt and courteous manner.
- Classify and prioritize calls to establish and coordinate the proper public safety response.
- Dispatch the appropriate resources such as police, fire, EMS, EMA and/or other emergency personnel as appropriate. Coordinate mutual aid when required.
- Utilize Computer Aided Dispatch System (CISCO CAD) to record data promptly and accurately from all calls.
- Efficiently operate computer terminal connected to IDACS, NCIC, and the BMV to obtain and relay essential information to emergency response personnel.
- Monitor the status of public safety units to ensure officer safety and availability of services.
- Efficiently operate multiple communications devices and computer terminals concurrently to insure swift and appropriate responses to calls.
- Monitor alarms and security systems both internally and externally.
- Perform other duties as needed or required.
